Component Mission

The National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) leads our nation's effort to combat terrorism at home and abroad by analyzing the threat, sharing that information with our partners, and integrating all instruments of national power to ensure unity of effort. The Center serves as the primary organization in the United States Government (USG) for analyzing and integrating all intelligence possessed or acquired by the USG pertaining to terrorism and counterterrorism, and its Director serves as the Counterterrorism Mission Manager. NCTC also serves as the central and shared knowledge bank on known and suspected terrorists and international terrorist groups, as well as their goals, strategies, capabilities, and networks of contacts and support. In addition, NCTC conducts strategic operational planning for counterterrorism activities, coordinating and integrating the efforts of departments and agencies across the Federal Government.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- NCTC/DI's Strategic Intelligence Group (SIG) provides Intelligence Community–coordinated products in support of national counterterrorism missions and manages the activities of the Interagency Intelligence Committee on Terrorism, a terrorist threat warning mechanism and analytical forum for the exchange of intelligence on terrorism.
- The IICT integrates and analyzes all-source intelligence to draft and coordinate assessments on threats to the US interests worldwide.
- Perform in-depth analysis of terrorist threats in a specific region and the CT capabilities of those countries, for senior policymakers and key components in the Intelligence Community (IC), law enforcement, and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI).
- Prepare and present written and oral briefings to senior internal and external customers on significant intelligence issues; explain complex concepts to non-expert customers and tailor the product to correspond to customer needs.
- Apply a full range of methodological tools and approaches to gain a comprehensive understanding of complex and significant analytic issues and incorporate insights and findings into well-crafted, sophisticated intelligence products.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Cultivate and maintain productive working relationships with colleagues, experts, IC members, policy committees, and law enforcement agencies as appropriate and use these relationships to share information and collaborate on production.
- Develop and continually expand subject matter expertise; attend internal and external training, seminars, or conferences relevant to your work.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- A writing sample that demonstrates the applicants written communication skills.
- A 1-2 page narrative addressing the following requirements:
 - o Demonstrated ability to effectively plan, research, develop and write high quality complex analyses, studies, projects, assignments, and briefings on key US foreign policy and national security objectives focused on a specific region or transnational issue for IC consumers and policymakers at the highest levels of government.
 - o Demonstrated ability to maintain and develop regular contacts within ODNI and the IC for the purposes of sharing information and collaborating on finished intelligence production.
 - o Demonstrated analytic and critical thinking skills, including demonstrated ability to think strategically.

Desired Requirements

- Prior work experience or advanced academic study on terrorism.
